

Geography - North America

What? To locate countries in North America and Central America

Why? So that we can improve our understanding of the world

How? Find and label all the countries in North America and Central America.
Each country should be coloured in a different colour.

Extension: Find out and label the name of the oceans surrounding North America.

