

We folded the top corners inwards to the centre. Then we folded the plane in half inwards along the centre line. Then we folded down the wing to meet the bottom. After that we turned the plane over and folded down the second wing so that it matched. Then we folded the wing again to meet the bottom edge. Finally we turned the plane over and folded down the other wing.