

The Magic Box

I will put in the box

the swish of a silk sari on a summer night, fire from the nostrils of a Chinese dragon, the tip of a tongue touching a tooth.

a snowman with a rumbling belly a sip of the bluest water from Lake Lucerene, a leaping spark from an electric fish.

I will put into the box three violet wishes spoken in Gujarati, the last joke of an ancient uncle, and the first smile of a baby.

I will put into the box

a fifth season and a black sun, a cowboy on a broomstick and a witch on a white horse.

My box is fashioned from ice and gold and steel, with stars on the lid and secrets in the corners.
Its hinges are the toe joints of dinosaurs.

I shall surf in my box on the great high-rolling breakers of the wild Atlantic, then wash ashore on a yellow beach the colour of the sun.
