

What is the most common pet? cat

How many pets are there in total? 13

How many more cats than hamsters are there? 2

How many fewer fish than dogs are there? 2

The most popular colour is yellow. True

16 children voted for their favourite colour. False - 17 children voted.

Three children chose pink. True

Three more children chose yellow than blue. False - 2 more children chose yellow than blue.

Seven children chose red and pink together. True

The same number of children chose pink and blue. True

Presentation

Same:

- One symbol represents one child.
- The same symbol is used for all the different eye colours throughout each pictogram.
- The same eye colours appear in both pictograms and are presented in the same order.

Different:

- Class A's pictogram has a horizontal layout whereas class B's has a vertical layout.
- Class A's pictogram uses a square symbol whereas class B's uses a star symbol.

Data

Same:

- Green is the least common eye colour in both classes, with one child in each class.
- Both classes have 14 children.

Different:

- The most common eye colour in class A is blue whereas in class B it is brown.
- There were different numbers of children with blue, brown and grey eyes in both classes.