

Middleworld

J&P VOELKEL

Wednesday - Reading

1. Read or listen to the text Chapter 22.
2. Write down any words that you are unsure of.

Quick quiz

- Max is warned, “They will use your fears against you.” Based on his experiences in Chapter 22, what are Max’s greatest fears? Based on Max’s experiences, can you guess what might have happened to Lola? If you’d been there, what fears might Ah Pukuh have chosen to use against you?

Quick quiz - Answers

- Max fears that his parents do not really love him. He also worries that girls, in particular Lola, find him repulsive and unattractive.
- Lola did not know her parents, so I think she fears that they did not love her or worries about what happened to them and why she was abandoned as a baby.

The Boy, the mole,
the fox and the horse

Charlie Mackesy

DO YOU HAVE ANY FAVOURITE SAYINGS OR MESSAGES OF YOUR OWN?

"Do you have a favourite saying?" asked the boy.

"Yes" said the mole.

"What is it?"

"If at first you don't succeed,

"I see,

does it work?"

"Every time"

Today I would like you to think about or find a variety of different sayings, quotes or messages with meaning. You may have one that you use at home or as a family that is personal to you. You may know of or have seen some in books or on the internet. I would like you to choose your favourite one.

Then you are going to write it out and decorate it, or write it out and photograph it. How you present your quote is important and personal to you, so think carefully about it.

Below is my example to help you.

Here is one that I really like. I have put it on my fridge in magnetic letters, so that I can look at it everyday.

