J&P VOELKEL

Tuesday - Reading

1. Read or listen to the text Chapter 21.
2. Write down any words that you are unsure of.

Quick quiz

- Max is delighted to get the job of guarding the camp at the end of Chapter 21. Do you think it will work out the way he expects? Make some predictions about what might happen. If you were there, which job would you want?

Quick quiz - Answers

- I think that things might not go to plan for Max. I predict that either trouble will head his way or he will be drawn in to it. Perhaps because of his parents, or perhaps because he has already connected to Tzelek. Personally, I would not want to be left alone and would choose to stay with someone who made me feel safe.

The Boy, the mole,
the fox and the Horse

Charlie Mackesy

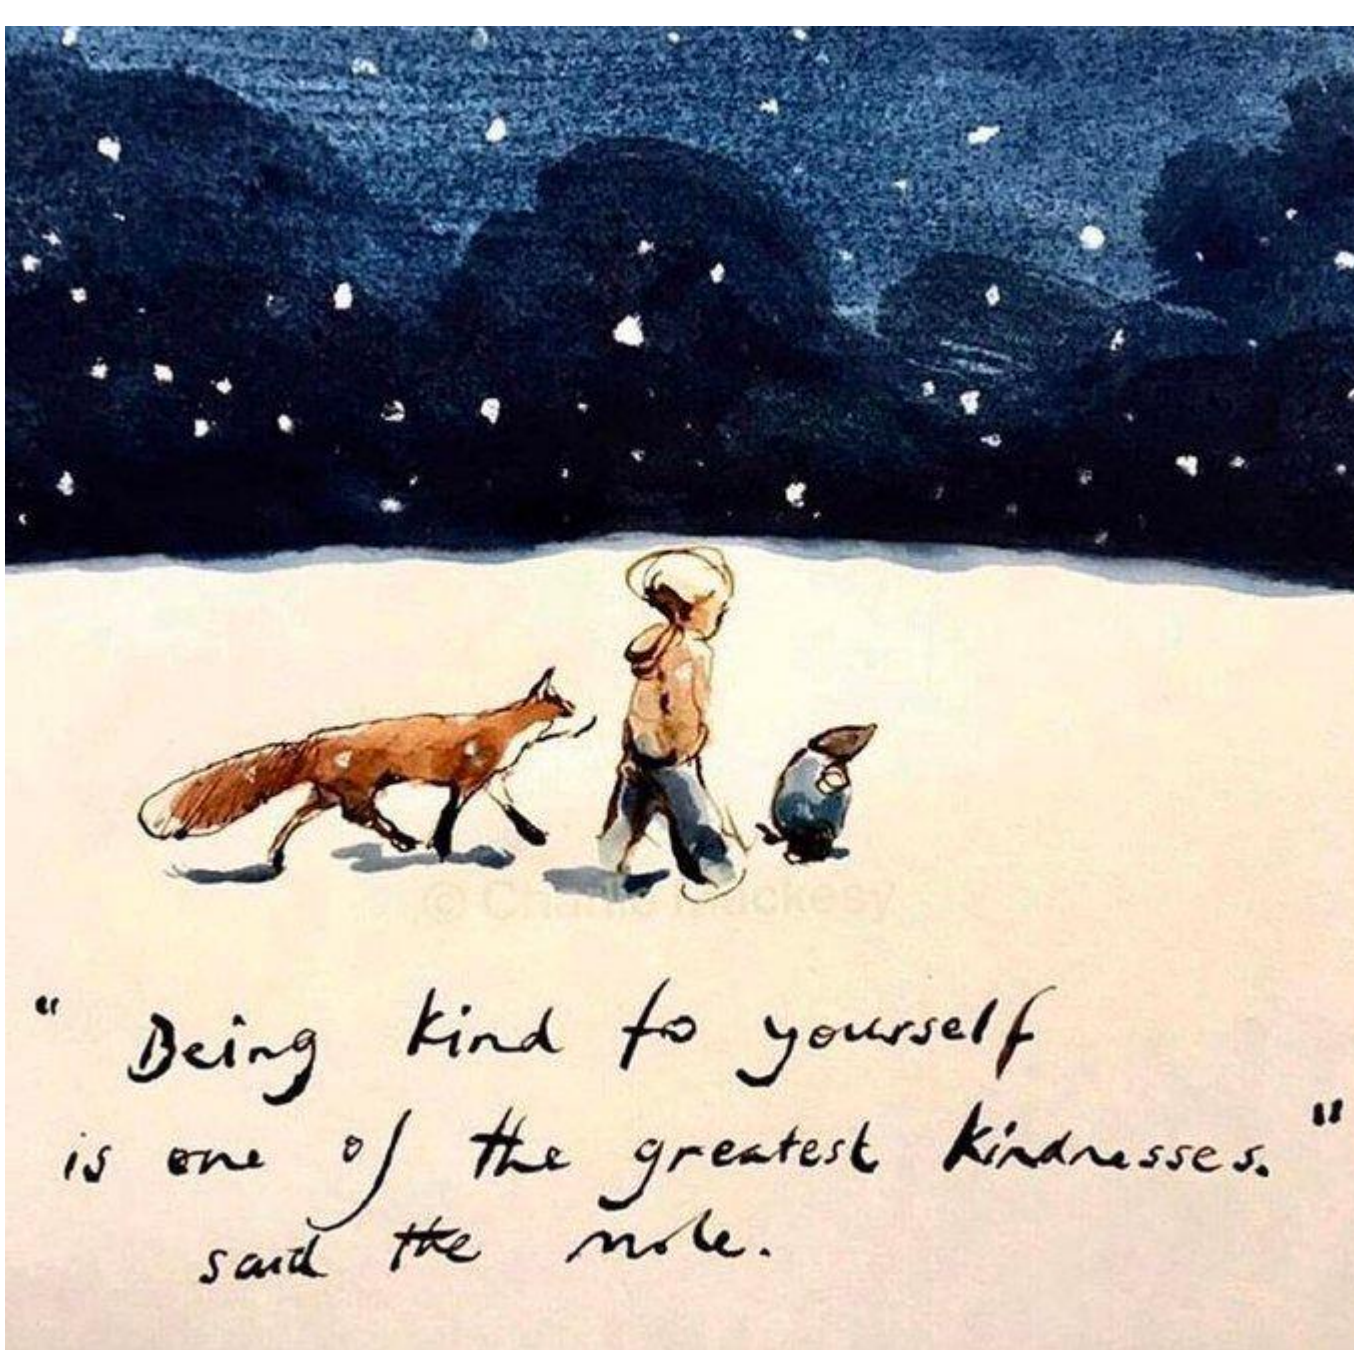

HOW DOES THIS MESSAGE RELATE TO US? HOW DO WE MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

"I'm so small," said
the mole.

"Yes," said
the boy,
"but you make a huge difference."

WHAT DOES 'BE KIND TO YOURSELF' MEAN?

"Being kind to yourself is one of the greatest kindnesses."
said the mole.

Today you are going to write a 'to do' list with a twist. A list of things that everyone should do to be kind to themselves. A set of instructions if you like, things that you think everyone should do, that are good for your well-being, things that make you happy. Everyone's list will be different, but here is the beginning of mine, I think it is something that I will need to add to over time.

To do...

Laugh out loud,
Blow dandelion clocks,
Make a wish,
Sing,
Smile,
Make a daisy chain,
Gaze at the stars,
Eat ice-cream,
Have a bubble bath,
Dance to your favourite song,
Hug someone (or something) you love,
Read a book,
Paint a picture,
Splash in a puddle,
Do a cartwheel,
Listen to the birds,
Play pooh sticks,
Make someone a cup of tea,
Exercise,
Help someone,
Build a den,
Be yourself.
