

Plenary

This photograph shows an arctic environment in Norway. Freezing cold wind blows across the region, and snow and ice cover the landscape for most of the year. The soil is frozen for most of the year. It is very dark, too; the Sun does not rise above the horizon for roughly two months of the year!

back

www.blanbee.com

Can you describe some of the characteristics a plant might need to survive in this environment?

Think, pair, share your ideas.

next

Draw and label a picture of a domestic cat that has evolved and adapted to live in the harsh environment in Norway. Describe its evolved characteristics.

