J&P VOELKEL

Thursday - Reading

1. Read or listen to the text Chapter 9 and 10.
2. Write down any words that you are unsure of.

Quick quiz

- When Lola says “Life is hard in the rainforest. Everything is fighting for survival,” what does she mean?
- Can you think of examples, other than the tree roots?

Quick quiz - Answers

- I think she is talking about people too, about herself, it made me think about Lola. Has she had a tough life? Where are her parents and why is she alone? Perhaps someone taught her these survival skills, or maybe she has had to learn them to survive.
- The Maya people had to survive drought, deforestation, over-population and conquests for thousands of years.

Diary Planning

Today you are going to plan a diary entry for Max. This could be about any of the chapters so far, depending on which one you found most interesting or exciting. Once you have decided, use the sheet or pop the headings into your book and plan your own diary entry as Max. With the extra chapter to read today, do not worry if you do not finish, we can finish it tomorrow.
