Wednesday- Reading

1. Read or listen to the text Chapter 3.
2. Write down any words that you are unsure of and see if you can find the meaning.

Quick quiz –Chapter 3

- What does Max mean ‘hope died in Puerto Muerto’?
- What does ‘How the mighty had fallen’ mean?
- Was logwood the only thing that had stained the general’s hands?

Quick quiz –Answers

- Puerto Muerto and its people were tired and run-down, litter-strewn with neglected buildings.
- That it once was thriving with rich and lavish buildings and people, but not anymore...even the statue of the general, is just a place for pigeons to rest and poop.
- They would have the blood of their dead slaves on their hands too.

1. Find evidence in the text to show what Max looks like.
2. Draw an outline of a face or of a whole body. Now draw Max's features and label them using evidence from the text.
3. Around the outside or on a different page write down any other information we know about Max so far.
