Great Newspaper Report

Body

For a good body section, you need to:

- Add more information and detail to your lead paragraph;
- Include background information, evidence, facts and quotes from people involved in or connected to the event/story;
- Continue to write in order of importance, putting the most important information in the first few paragraphs of the body section.

Having quotes from witnesses or experts will make your report more credible and interesting.

Be sure to use correct punctuation for quotes!

After insulting Chac, the young ball player had been swept up into the clouds and begged Chac's forgiveness. However, the god of rain demanded that he earn it. So his and his people's fate rested on the outcome of a pok-a-tok game.

Determined to win, Pik sought the help of the jaguar, quetzal and cenote. It seemed that Chac's powers were too great, as he summoned a terrific whirlwind, but it was Jaguar who scored the first goal. Chac brought the game to a tie, sending the ball and Quetzal soaring through the stone ring. The final goal was Pik's, as Chac plunged into the cenote that had opened below.
